

Share transfer system

Share transfers in physical form are registered normally within two to three days from the date of receipt, provided that the documents are clear in all respects.

Certain officers of the company have been authorised to approve share transfers / transmission.